Union and Confederate Soldiers Besent the Grand Army's Interference, Another meeting of the order of United American Veterans was held last night at the Metropolitan Hotel, Dr. H. N. Howard presided. The extension of the limit of incorporation members to lifty was agreed to. This will make twenty five on each side, Union and Confederate. Hon, H. Carleton of Georgia, Hon, J. S. Cathran of South Carolina, Colonel L. I Wright, Register of Wills; Major R. S Wildliembe, Colonel Spencer, C. Jones of Maryland, L. S. Emery, M. P. Key, John F. Key and James Can-Lop were elected to membership.

Representative Carlton who made speech said that Insamuch as he had fought on the Confederate side he was in favor of any scheme which proposed to unite both sides.

Dr. Howard made a speech in reference to the recent criticism of Meade Post, G. A. R., to the clause in the declaration of principles: "The men who gave patriotic service in response to their duty as they saw their duty deserved the honorable consideration of their countrymen." The question of considering the criticism was placed before the meeting and the association unanimously indersed the principles set

Dr. Howard said the new order did not intend in any way to conflict with German Societies Celebrate the Settle-ment of Germantown, The wet weather of yesterday did not affect the successful celebration of German Day in the least. At 5 o'clock the parade, headed by the National Guard Band, marched from Sixth street and Louislana avenue to the Schuetzer Verein Park on Seventh street. The Verein Park on Seventh street. The procession was composed of the various German societies of the city, accompanied by a detachment of the Light Battallon, D. C. V.

The park was handsomely decorated and was filled with people when the procession arrived. Mr. Paul Schulzs, resident of the associate societies, re eived the societies in an appropriate peech. Mr. D. Skutsch responded to Mr. Schulze, thanking the audience for the successful manner in which they had carried out the purposes of the so ciety.

The regular exercises commenced at 7.30 o'clock in the hall. Mr. Pani Schulze delivered the opening address and was liberally applauded. Hen. L. W. Habercom followed in a speech outling the purposes of the societies, and devoting a considerable portion of his address to the progress of the German settlers in this country. In the course of his address Mr. Habercom was repeatedly applauded, and at its conclusion the Sengerbund and Mannerchor sang 'Das Deutsche Lied.'

Ex Commissioner Hine then delivered an address, in which he recalled the an address, in which he recalled the good influence which the German element has had on the institutions of our country. Mr. Illne in conclusion spoke on the subject of personal liberty, and the great love which the Germans have for it.

Commissioner Douglass followed in a brief address, congratulating the Ger-man settlers for the good name which they have secured as law abiding and industrious citizens.

The celebration was concluded with songs and a magnificent display of fire-

A meeting of the Columbia Demo cratic Club will be held this evening at the Metropolitan Hotel. A circular has been issued by the club on the importance of the coming Congressional elections, and calling upon all Democrats to get to work. The circular also condemns the Republican House for its reckless extravagance and its injustic in arsenting Democratic members. I concludes with an urgent appeal for every Democrat to secure the election of a Democratic House of Representa-TYUE.

Reystone Republicans,

Last night at the meeting of the Pennsylvania Republican Club reports were read from the compalgu committee who have arranged for half-rate fares to all parts of the State. Efforts are being made to have the time extended for tickets to thirty days with good prospects of success. The printed registration lists from Philadelphia have been placed in the club room. Twenty five new members were elected. President Rankin gave an account of the condition of the campaign as he found it during his visit to Philadelphia, and several spirited speeches were made. several spirited speeches were made.
